MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence

VIA : Chief, Administrative Staff, OER
Chief, Industrial Nations Division
Chief, [ ] Pacific Branch rel

25X1

SUBJECT : Request permission to Address Economic Seminar

1. It is requested that I be granted permission to address, on 25 September 1975, several under-graduate classes on Comparative Economic Systems at Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pennsylvania. Additionally, I request permission to participate in an informal senior seminar on world economic development.

2. As an alumnus of Washington and Jefferson, I will be participating as a practicing economist with my Agency affiliation known. I will use only unclassified material and will state that the views I express are my own. As these will be informal lectures and discussions no text will be used.

The attached request was received by the CAR on 26 September. The requester had already left before final approval was given by the ADDI; therefore, he has not even seen this. I am returning it to you with sample copies of the proper format. I suggest that in the future, these be handcarried since there are obvious delays when sending through the Agency mail. If you have any questions, you may call me on x6779.
